

CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY SYSTEM

School of Education

Fulltime Faculty, Secondary Education: English/Language Arts
Blended and Online Courses
Monterey Campus

Since 1958, Brandman University (formerly University College of Chapman University) has been a leader in offering working professionals personalized and practical educational opportunities at 25 campuses in California and Washington. Brandman University is a private, non-profit institution fully accredited by WASC and a member of the Chapman University System. The School of Education credential programs are accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing and the Unit is an NCATE candidate. Brandman has focused on developing an innovative curriculum approach for our Education programs, using a blended format of face-to-face instruction and distance learning, to ensure high quality and rigorous instruction to maximize candidate learning and effectiveness as a practitioner.

Responsibilities of Brandman University Faculty include teaching; scholarship (Boyer's Model); program development and assessment; mentoring adjunct faculty and students; and service to the university and community. The successful candidate will possess an earned doctorate with higher education teaching experience and a commitment to working with adult students. The ideal candidate will have:

- Doctorate in education or related discipline
- At least 5 years of experience as a secondary teacher
- Single Subject Teaching Credential
- English Learner Authorization or CLAD certification
- Experience in Higher Education, teaching at the Masters or Doctoral level.
- Experience with distance learning and academic technology
- Recognized leader in the field of education and literacy
- Expertise in working with English learners
- Accreditation experience desirable
- Strong speaking and writing skills

The faculty member will be responsible for oversight/instruction of graduate courses within the single subject credential and Master of Arts in Teaching programs. The faculty member will supervise and support adjunct faculty within credential and Masters programs across multiple campuses. All Brandman University Faculty positions are non-tenure track, and generally hired in at the rank of assistant professor. Full-time positions offer competitive salaries. This position is effective August 2015.

Brandman University prohibits discrimination and harassment, and provides equal employment opportunity without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, sex, age, or genetic information. Brandman is committed to recruiting, hiring, and promoting qualified minorities, women, individuals with disabilities, and veterans.

This fulltime faculty position is located at the Monterey campus. Please submit a resume, copy of your graduate transcript, and salary history to: Dr. Maria Cesario, Associate Vice Chancellor, Academic Affairs at facultysearch@brandman.edu